M. J. JONES, Secretary,
New Castle, Kentucky.

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF KENTUCKY WESLEYAN COLLEGE.

The advance in our College work for the past school year may be briefly stated in the mention of the following facts:

1st. The attendance, or number of students enrolled at the College the past school year was twenty per cent. in advance of the year previous.

2nd. The four hundred dollars raised at the Conference session a year ago was duplicated by the citizens of Winchester. And the eight hundred dollars thus realized has been used in changing the old broom factory into a building, adequate in size and equipment for a gymnasium. This building meets a long felt want, and adds to the equipment of the College.

3rd. The Library building is now complete and will be open for the use of the students the present year. The prospects for the opening of the College next week are good.

Adding the endowment of the Library to the regular endowment of the College we find the total endowment increased to $82,194.93.

We call attention to the splendid work being done by the College. Experts in education assure us that the work in class room, and otherwise is first class in the grade of college work. The religious influences, and the opportunities for spiritual culture and service are very gratifying.

The attention of the Conference is also called to the College Preparatory School. Many of our people are sending their children from home to do High School work. To all such we commend the superior advantages offered in our well equipped preparatory school.

Kentucky Wesleyan College was founded in 1866; the Board of Education at its last meeting unanimously agreed that the fiftieth year of the existence of the College should be signalized by a forward movement in the interest of the institution, the good of our church, and the glory of God.

Two things were agreed upon:

1st. We would celebrate Wesleyan's Semi Centennial in June, 1916, by making the commencement the greatest in the history of the institution.

2nd. Believing the time has come to increase our college endowment and equipment, we propose to inaugurate a movement to secure $50,000.00.

We would begin this great enterprise in the fear of God; persistently prosecute it trusting Him for guidance and help; and bring it to a successful consummation for His glory.

In this undertaking we ask for the hearty approval and co-operation of the Conference. Surely this is the time when Kentucky Conference Methodism may confidently expect every man to do his duty.

JNO. R. DEERING, Chairman.

J. P. STROTHER, Secretary.

JNO. R. DEERING, President.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Never in the history of our church and nation has the need of Christian education been greater. It is easy for any people to forget God. It is important for all people to be taught about God and His Kingdom; especially do our young people, growing up amid the influences of worldliness peculiar to our time, need the influences of our holy religion in home and church, but they also need these influences in school life.

We rejoice therefore that our church is enlarging its plans and activities to provide schools for its sons and daughters. Our General Board of Education is doing very wise and efficient work, and is being more and more felt in our church life.

The two universities, one at Atlanta, the other at Dallas, have made gratifying progress during the year.

The Atlanta University School of Theology has closed its first year, having gone beyond the expectations of its faculty in attendance.

During the year the Atlanta Medical College has been turned over to the Emory University by deed in fee simple.

The assets of Emory University now aggregate $2,500,000.00. The Southern Methodist University at Dallas has gotten together a splendid faculty, and expects to open its doors for students this September. Its total assets amount to $2,021,578.63.

The World's Student Christian Federation has set apart the fourth Sunday in February, 1916, as a day of prayer for colleges. Your Board recommends co-operation in the use of this day of prayer, especially in behalf of our own colleges.

We note with pleasure the presence of Dr. R. H. Bennett, Secretary of Correspondence School, at our Conference session. The work he represents is one of the most important in our Church. Your Board recommends to all our undergraduates the use of our correspondence school.

The Board further recommends the placing of an assessment of $600 on the Conference to pay the fees in the Correspondence School of Undergraduates, for who are not able to pay said fees themselves, any surplus remaining in the treasury at the end of the year to be added to the FFund for Educating Young Ministers. The President of the Board, the President of the College, and the Presiding Elder of the District to constitute a committee to pass upon each application for assistance. We state the further fact that twenty per cent. of this collection is to go to the General Board of Education to meet the numerous calls that come to them for assistance from weaker conferences.

We note with appreciation that the Louisville Conference recommends the use of our Kentucky Wesleyan College to its young men, and we cordially commend Logan Female College to our young women.

The statistics of Kentucky Wesleyan College are as follows:

Teachers	7
Students	120
Value of Property	$121,500
Endowment	$82,194.93

Respectfully submitted,

E. G. B. MANN, President.

J. P. STROTHER, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

In this, the world's most tragic hour, Christian America has become the bulwark of Christian Civilization. The so-called Christian nations of Europe are absorbed in war and have no money and but few men to use in the spread of the Kingdom of God. To our own peaceful country, therefore, missionaries are making their appeal for support and encouragement, and the desolate of all countries are stretching their hands to us for help.

Peculiar blessings have been vouchsafed to us for this time of peculiar need. Bountiful harvests have supplied us with the grain to feed the hungry millions, great men of peace have been raised up to guide the nation through these times of peril, and a great, growing, well organized, protestant church has been fostered here to lift up Jesus Christ among the warring nations. It is no time for self-congratulation and selfish conservation of our God-given resources, but a time to show to the world that liberality which is ever one of the fruits of Christianity.

The leaders of our great church, in common with others, are calling insistently for help and it is ours to respond heartily. They ask four things of us:

First, To meet our assessments in full. This is the very least we can afford to do, for, it will be remembered, the assessment is the minimum amount required to support our work.

Second, We are asked to increase the number of regular specials. The assessment will not pay for any large increase in the work the church is now doing in fields already occupied, or for the enterprising of new fields of service. We urge all among us who have money to invest in Missions to give it through the regular channels of the church that it may be safely and wisely administered where it will do the most good.

Third, We are asked to assist in creating a larger interest in Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues in Missions. The gratifying support given to the cause by the children and young people of the church has been most encouraging to the Board the past year.

Fourth, A large representation of the pastors of the conference at the great Missionary gathering at Junaluska the coming year to discuss our relation to world evangelism. The date is to be announced later in the church press. The place is ideal, the topic is timely and the need of such a gathering is evident.

Your Board rejoices in the good advance made over last year as shown in the Conference Cashier's report and we believe the "Campaign for Full Collections," enterprised last year, has assisted materially in this good result. We sincerely thank the Presiding Elders and pastors and all co-operating boards for their assistance in the campaign and, for the coming year, we recommend the adoption of the same plan, viz:

1. There shall be held in Lexington, Ky., within sixty days of the adjournment of this Conference, a meeting of the Board of Missions, the Presiding Elders and the Committee on Activities of Laymen, for conference for the planning of such a campaign.

2. That the Board of Missions, the Presiding Elders and the Conference urgently request Bishop Atkins to attend this meeting and assist in this work.

3. There shall be held in each district a Missionary Institute before the 15th of December, 1915.

4. Each Presiding Elder shall publish in our Conference Organ, before January 1, 1916, an outline of the plan of campaign adopted for his district.

5. We declare that all collections must be in hand, or secured definitely in good, collectable subscriptions, before the meeting of the District Conferences of 1916.

6. Let one session of each District Conference be given to the laymen. For this session let the Conference and District Leaders prepare the program and one of them preside.

7. Our aim shall be: Home and Conference Missions paid in full by January 1st. Foreign Missions paid in full by April 1st each year.

8. We ask the co-operation and assistance of all Boards and Committees in charge of funds secured by our Conference collections to aid us in carrying forward this campaign.

We recommend that Rev. B. C. Horton be appointed Conference Missionary Secretary.

We recommend the following for Evangelistic Committee: W. A. Swift, C. K. Dickey, E. K. Pike, J. D. Redd, J. B. Harris, W. W. Ball and R. M. Smith.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your Board of Church Extension is gratified to report the close of a prosperous year of its work. Our people are recognizing its proper place in the front rank of the institutions of the church.

The increase in collections over last year amounted to $254.59, bringing the aggregate to nearly $4,000.00 or 81 per cent. of the assessments.

After dividing with the General Board and adding the sums appropriated but not called for last year we have the sum of $2,800.00 with which to aid needy churches.

The demands upon us, however, far exceed our resources. A dozen new enterprises are calling for help. All are worthy, and the sum of their requests is $3,665.00.

After a careful consideration of all applications, inquiring particularly into the merits of each case, we made appropriations as follows:

To McKee, Jackson County	$250
California, Campbell County	250
Sweeney's Chapel, Pulaski County	100
Walnut Grove, Owen County	50
Milton, Trimble County	100
Gravel Switch, Marion County	250
Jenkins, Letcher County	600
Quicksand, Breathitt County	500
West Liberty Parsonage	200

The sum of $500.00 was voted to Wilmore to pay on the loan made three years ago to that church. Which $500.00 our Treasurer was instructed to send to the General Secretary, Dr. McMurry, to be reloaned to the Danville District parsonage together with any other sum belonging to our Loan Fund in his office.

While still far short of the needs of the General Board, we are glad to note a gratifying increase in the Loan Fund Capital last year. The increase amounting to $110,853.56, which is by far the largest increase in the history of the General Board.

We enthusiastically approve the purpose of the General Board to increase this capital, and unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved: First. We heartily endorse the proposition of the General Board for a Loan Fund Day throughout the bounds of our church, and pledge ourselves to co-operate with the Special Committee in making it a success.

Second. Our preachers and churches are urged to fall in line with the whole church in giving the day designated to the interests of Church Extension, affording the people an opportunity to make contributions in cash or subscription, all cash received to be remitted to the general office at Louisville, Ky., and all subscriptions taken, with the amount subscribed and address, sent to the same place.

Third. We recommend that contributions not otherwise directed within the bounds of this Conference, become a part of the Conference Board Loan Fund, which fund is administered by this Board in the interest of church and parsonage building within the bounds of the Conference, through the general office at Louisville, Ky. We recommend also that the amount contributed by the Sunday Schools of this Conference be added to the Sunday School Loan Fund.

Fourth. We urge our presiding elders, preachers, lay leaders, Sunday School superintendents and Epworth League officers to keep this matter before the people, and to so plan that they may be informed on the subject and that they be given an opportunity to make a contribution to the Loan Fund Capital of the Board of Church Extension.

Fifth. We make mention of the fact, for the information of all concerned, that the general office at Louisville, Ky., will provide, free of charge, literature, charts, etc., for educational purposes, subscription blanks, and all other necessary printed matter for the proper observance of the day.

We desire to urge all our people, pastors and trustees especially, whenever contemplating a new church or parsonage, to consider well whether they might not accomplish equal or better results by applying to our Board for a loan rather than for a donation. Time is money, and often a church will be better served by giving it time on money than by giving it the money outright. Thus the resources of the Board are conserved and its working energy perpetuated.

The assessment by districts for next year has been reported by the Joint Board of Finance.

REPORT NO. 1 OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

In view of the great importance of the Sunday School and of our need to develop it to its greatest efficiency: Resolved, first, That we propose to the Louisville Conference the employment of a joint Sunday School Field Secretary to serve the two conferences, each to bear half the expense and to receive half the service. Second, That the Executive Committee of our Conference Sunday School Board be and is hereby empowered to act with a similar committee from the Louisville Conference in finding and employing a suitable man for this work and in directing his labors. Third, That, for the purpose of meeting our part of the expense for this purpose, the Joint Board of Finance be instructed to lay on the Conference an assessment of $1,200.00 and apportion the same to the several districts. Fourth, That in case the Louisville Conference fails to join us in this work said assessment is to become null and void and not to be collected.

C. H. GREER, Chairman.

J. P. STROTHER, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 2 OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

During the past year your Board has done what it could to promote the Sunday School work in the bounds of our Conference. Institutes were held in six of the seven districts. The other failing because no place was found to entertain it.

The reports for the year show a net gain of 3,154 in enrollment and of 14 Teacher-training classes, the latter being nearly 100 per cent. We are gratified at the good showing on these two points but in other points we show a small increase or a small decrease. This latter fact warns us that we must redouble our diligence to make this great work move forward at every point. We cannot afford to fail when the whole church is moving forward.

Our Sunday School literature was never better than now nor more worthy of our great church. All the periodicals except two in the Uniform Series and one in the Graded Lessons show a fine increase in circulation. The Workers' Council, our magazine of methods, is filling a real need and in its enlarged form will fill all the requirements of a first-class periodical of that kind. After the close of the present year it will carry also the material now placed in the Missionary Messenger. We commend it to all our schools. Both the Senior and Intermediate quarterlies will be enlarged to forty-eight page magazines as soon as it can be done.

The Wesley Bible Class Department continues to grow, Dr. J. W. Shackford, the newly elected Superintendent of Teacher Training, is planning a forward movement in that department. All the Teacher Training courses will be thoroughly revised and made to fully meet the needs of the church.

Mr. C. J. Nugent, recently elected Divisional Field Secretary for the middle Division, has entered upon his work with enthusiasm. It has been a great pleasure to us to have him make his first official visit to this the Conference of his father. We hereby pledge him our heartiest sympathy and support in his work.

We recognize in the Sunday School a mighty force for religious education and evangelism. It is first of all a religious institution but is also a school where real instruction should be given. We are therefore resolved to have this in mind and urge our people to give attention to the organization of the school according to our Standard of Efficiency, looking especially to securing the full force of the Cradle Roll, the Home Department, Wesley Bible Classes, Teacher-training Classes and missionary instruction. We are also especially anxious that there shall be a school in every church. We believe our literature to be by far the best to be had from any source for Methodist people and are resolved to use it in all our schools.

Two of our greatest present needs are: 1st, A corps of workers better equipped for the work than any we have hitherto had and, 2d. Buildings and equipment sufficient for the demands of modern Sunday School work. A great opportunity is before us and your Board offers all possible aid in taking advantage of it as it passes.

REPORT OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

During the past year the Epworth League work of the Kentucky Conference has been carried forward with gratifying results. Our Young People are developing leadership capacity, and the great importance of this work is recognized in all sections of the conference. We commend our young people for the willingness of mind expressed on their part to work in harmony with the changing laws of the Church affecting the League.

We rejoice in the success of the Conference Epworth League organization which brings some of our choice young people together annually for prayer and counsel, and we urge all of our pastors to give hearty encouragement to this worthy organization. We also rejoice in the large material interest displayed by the Epworth Leaguers in our African Mission.

We call attention to the fact that the Conference Epworth League subscribed $139.00 toward the support of Miss Julia Crutchfield's kindergarten work at Jenkins, under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Association. Miss Fannie O'Brien, of Cynthiana, has recently gone to assist Miss Crutchfield, and she is supported by the Cynthiana Church and the Covington District Leagues.

Our General Secretary of Epworth Leagues reports the church-wide work of the Epworth League as follows: 448 new chapters, having a membership of 11,205, were chartered between May 1, 1914, and April 30, 1915. There was contributed for all purposes last year $103,959, of which $17,325 was for Missionary Specials and $11,559 for the assessment for missions.

In view of the generally recognized place of the Epworth League in the polity of our Church, the economy of Grace and the symmetrical development of our young people in Christian experience, life and usefulness, we recommend:

I. That all the funds of the chapters, other than that for local use, be sent to G. P. Fisher, Conference Treasurer.

II. That more attention be given throughout the conference to the organization of Junior Leagues and adequate support of the same.

III. That our pastors urge the young people to attend the Annual Church-wide Institute held at Junaluska, as duly authorized by the Discipline.

During the year our beloved president, Bishop McCoy, has been called upon to pass through a great sorrow. We call attention to this that all may remember him at the throne of Grace.

G. W. CRUTCHFIELD, Chairman.

O. B. CROCKETT, Sec'ty pro. tem.

REPORT OF THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

Owing to the multitude of things demanding our attention, the American Bible Society seldom receives the consideration it deserves, either from our ministers, or from the Conference when in session. This Society undertakes the distribution of the Scriptures in over one hundred different languages, and its activities cover nearly every field at home and abroad. Of the three great Bible Societies of the world, the American issues largely more than half the volumes put out by these great distributors of the Word of God.

Last year there fell from its presses, 1,623,394 copies of the Bible or parts thereof. It has nine general agencies in our own land, and twelve in foreign countries. It has in its employ 1238 persons engaged in the distribution of the Word.

The cash receipts of the Society last year from individuals, churches, and auxiliaries, was only $119,665.41; from legacies and trust funds (subject to annuities), $337,370.49. The churches of this country asked of the Society in donations three times as much as they gave to it. Of the $300 assessed against our Conference, only $261.17 was paid. There is need of a large increase in the contributions to this Society if it would go forward with its beneficent work.

C. F. EVANS, Chairman.

J. E. WRIGHT, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The Committee on Books and Periodicals submit the following report:

We have carefully reviewed the statistics sent to us from the Nashville House, and regret to report a profit $449.99 less than last year, and especially is it humiliating when we think that the major part of the deficiency was incurred from the chief publications, viz: The Methodist Review, Christian Advocate, and Epworth Era. In noting these losses on the three publications it is fair to consider that each holds assets in unpaid subscriptions which if paid would greatly diminish the deficits reported if not entirely liquidate them.

The circulation of our Sunday School publications continues to increase steadily. Year by year they grow in the favor of our people.

There is no interest more important to the future and present life of the church than the publication and circulation of the church literature, and yet we are put to shame when we observe our appalling indifference, conspicuous in these figures. Last year the subscription list of the Christian Advocate showed a circulation of 16,500, this year only 14,700, but it is gratifying to know that the Epworth Era has an increase of 200.

When we think of the splendid galaxy of varied interest expressed in the numerous publications of our great church—such as the Methodist Review, which is considered by the most competent as second to none. We rejoice in the excellent, orthodox, well edited Christian Advocate, and in the dimensions of missionary interest incorporated in succinct form in the "Missionary Voice" and we must not forget the superb arrangement and extraordinary enthusiasm which the Epworth Era disseminates in the life of the youth of our church. With all of this information no Methodist should be ignorant relative to any interest common to the church and Kingdom of God. It is just to say that no paper can take the place in the life and interests of Kentucky Methodism which the Central Methodist occupies. It is worthy of the largest circulation. We continue to issue from our presses from time to time valuable contribution to religious literature in book form. It would be well for the church if every pastor would keep a catalogue of our House publications on his desk and make the effort to circulate the same among his people. The "Methodist Review," Christian Advocate, Central Methodist and for this matter all the publications must imbue the life of the church, if Methodism is enduring and proposes to stand the tests of tomorrow. An appropriation of $15,000 from the proceeds of the House has been made by the Book Committee for Conference Claimants for the present year.

We recommend that an Auxiliary Committee of four be appointed by the Chair to confer with the Book Committee relative to the consolidation of any number of Conference organs that they may be advisable and expedient.

Thus acting in accordance with the action of the General Conference and which will enable this Conference to act wisely should this important interest, in the wisdom of the Book Committee, demand our future consideration.

W. O. SADLER, Chairman.

R. B. WILSON, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Committee on Sabbath Observance beg to submit the following report:

Deploring the condition of our state relative to keeping holy the day of our Lord or the Sabbath we offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we most earnestly condemn all forms of Sabbath desecration, such as automobile joy riding, attendance at theaters, moving-picture shows, Sunday base ball and all general amusements.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the work of the Sunday League of America and call attention to their setting apart of the first Sunday in May as the day for Sabbath observance.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the Conference to bring this matter before the next General Assembly urging them to pass some law or laws to stop the running of excursion trains on the Sabbath day.

M. T. CHANDLER, Chairman.

J. A. SAWYER, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

The Committee on District Conference Records submits the following report:

All of the seven record books were in the hands of the Committee and were found to be generally well kept. The record of the Lexington District must be especially commended as a model of neatness and careful keeping. Two districts, the Maysville and Jackson, do not keep their records in the regular record book gotten out by our Publishing house and recommended for this purpose. Two books—those of the Frankfort and Danville Districts—might have been improved upon in neatness and form.

Minor mistakes in the form and matter of the various books might be mentioned as follows:

Maysville—No mention of devotional services at the beginning of sessions except in one instance. The reading and adoption of minutes not noted but in one instance.

Lexington—No record of devotional service at the beginning of the session.

Shelbyville—No record at the beginning of one session as to the disposition of the Minutes of preceeding session. Several committee reports are copied with no record of their adoption by the Conference.

Frankfort—States in one place that Minutes were read but does not say how they were disposed of. A record of the report of the Committee on Temperance is given but the report itself is not given. The record does not give the name of the president of the Conference.

Covington—A plural pronoun used in one instance referring to a singular noun. No record of devotional service at beginning of session. The Presiding Elder is referred to repeatedly as "the elder." No record of Minutes being read and approved at final session. Record not signed by president.

Jackson—No record of adjournment of a special meeting of the Licensing Committee.

Danville—No criticisms.

In many cases where the Epworth League or Sunday School Conference is held in conjunction with the District Conference the record of these conferences appears in the same book and embodied in the same record with that of the District Conference proper.

Respectfully submitted,

E. K. PIKE, Chairman.

G. R. COMBS, Secretary.

REPORT OF ORPHANS' HOME COMMITTEE.

We, your Committee on Orphans' Home, submit the following report:

We gather from report of president and agent the following facts:

1. That the home is in splendid condition, under good management and doing a splendid work for the inmates. And is therefore a credit to our church and deserves our sympathy, prayers and hearty support. We have now forty-one children, eighteen girls and twenty-three boys.

2. The president's financial report is as follows:

You will note that the principal source of income is the Fifth Sunday collections, $3,526.21. The offering for the year 1914-15 is best ever made. The total collections for the year were $5,076.76. To secure this amount has required hard work on the part of the agent, who has labored patiently and left no stone unturned to do the best work and most good for the Home, which lies so near his heart.

We, therefore, recommend the appointment of E. S. Boswell as agent for the home.

3. We request the conference to confirm the following persons as members of the Board of Directors: Clarence Watkins, John C. Strother, S. O. Snyder, J. G. Walker, W. N. Little, W. T. Baker, C. B. Petrie, Lee Lewis, G. W. B. Olmstead, Rev. A. P. Lyon, Thomas McClelland, J. F. Stewart, W. B. Morgan, A. L. Carithers, B. F. Curtis, Rev. E. G. B. Mann, Rev. W. E. Arnold, Rev. J. P. Strother, R. M. Smith, Rev. J. O. A. Vaught.

The home is in great need of electric lights throughout the entire plant and would have had them long ago, but for the lack of funds with which to pay for them. Oh, that we could find some one, who has sufficient love and money to make this important thing a reality.

REPORT ON EVANGELISM.

We, your Committee on Evangelism, feel very much encouraged over the past year's reports. We have received eighty-five reports and out of these we find that 175 revivals have been held, ninety-one pastors assisted in meetings and only fourteen charges held no meetings. While last year only thirty-five pastors of the whole conference promised to assist pastors; at this time seventy-six out of eighty-six promised to do so the coming year.

This committee would recommend that each charge attempt a revival the coming year—that the goal should not be set for less than 1000 conversions on each district.

We wish to urge that pastors exchange with each other in revival work. We have accomplished much this year but may we not do three times as much the coming year.

We wish to call attention to a very serious defect in modern revival meetings, and that is that we are not putting sufficient stress on the matter of converts uniting with the church. The Bible way of the early church was that they were added to the church daily as they were being saved.

One of the greatest fields of work is among the young people, but as we bring them into the church let us be sure to lead them to Jesus. We should receive into our communion the unconverted who seek to flee from the wrath to come and by our earnest efforts lead them into the experience of salvation.

In view of the fact that some other very important things have been neglected in our revival work we recommend that those who engage in such work seek to enlist the people more in the study of the Bible, having family prayer, attending Sunday School and other church services. Also that we seek to put into the homes Methodist literature, such as the conference organ, Methodist Armour, Discipline, etc.

During the past year the committee has had an expense of about $25.00 and we ask that a collection be taken by this Conference now for this amount for the coming year. We also ask that R. M. Smith, a member of this committee, be allowed to take this offering.

E. K. PIKE,

W. A. SWIFT, Secretary.

C. K. DICKEY, Editor.

P. S.—Collection amounted to $34.64.

LAY ACTIVITIES.

Your Board of Lay Activities are just beginning to realize how greatly enlarged is their place, and obligation in and to the church, under legislation enacted at our last General Conference, (this being our second Annual Conference since that time). At our last Annual Conference we had not fully realized the enlarged sphere and obligations that had been placed upon the laymen. The law as enacted, says: "The duties of this Board to consist of considering plans for the better support of the ministry, the larger activity of the laymen in evangelistic work, and co-operation with the other Conference Boards in extending their plans for larger service in all church work."

The church through its great legislative body, having made a place for our laymen of such large dignity and important service, we the laymen of the Kentucky Conference, do now accept the great responsibility and will endeavor to discharge our duty to the best of our ability, and do hereby ask of the ministers to fully recognize our part in the great work of the church, and to that end give us every encouragement possible in co-operating with us. We recognize the fact that it will require time and patience to get the laymen to take hold and to realize that they can succeed if they will. Things with life must grow, and that takes time, put them forward little by little. So if the pastors and presiding elders, will welcome this assistance, and "not grow weary in well doing, in due season, they shall reap if they faint not." Put us on trial.

We have done something this last year, and feel encouraged. We have fifty-seven charges in the conference in which the committees of the Laymen's Missionary movement are organized and effective. We have fifty-seven charges in which a systematic campaign of Missionary education is being conducted.

We have forty-eight charges in which an every-member canvass has been made for Missions and other conference claims.

We have eighteen charges using the duplex envelopes or some similar device for collecting. We have thirty-one charges carrying a Missionary special.

The Laymen's Missionary Movement has co-operated with the Conference Boards of Missions, Church Extension and Education and assisted in providing for superannuated preachers, widows and orphans. There has been an increase in all the collections, and we know where we have helped to make it possible. As to assisting in providing for superannuated preachers, widows and orphans, there was over a thousand dollars added to the endowment fund of the Preachers' Aid Society last year, and there has been more than a thousand dollars subscribed to the fund at this conference, getting near to thirty thousand dollars, and out of it at this conference reporting $1,726.70 income, to distribute to the claimants thereunder. The laymen have and are doing much toward the building up of this fund. Then besides, at this present conference there is reported, and the deed therefore is now presented, wherein two of our good laymen have given property situated in Versailles, Kentucky, worth two thousand dollars or more, as a parsonage for a superannuated preacher and his family. May God bless the good laymen. Then in the promotion of evangelism while the laymen are slow to act, and are timid in this matter, we have a number in our conference who are doing evangelistic work, and desire to do more—while others would be induced to do so if encouraged by the pastors and presiding elders.

Then as to the prohibition of the liquor traffic and other forms of social service, within the bounds of our conference, there has been much done this past year. In the matter of the prohibition of the liquor traffic—there were elections against it in Mason, Bourbon, Scott, Shelby, Fayette, Clarke, Montgomery and Bell counties, and there was success in all of said counties, except Fayette. In the fight in each county, Methodist laymen were in the lead of the fight and did much toward the victory won. So in the matter of all social service, throughout our whole conference, will be found Methodist laymen at the front, standing for equal rights and complete justice for all men in all stations of life, for the protection of the family, by the single standard of purity. For the fullest possible development of every child, especially by the provision of proper education and for conservation of health.

Now this year we beg the presiding elders to do everything they can in helping us, and to give every possible encouragement. That at their district conferences, they will endeavor to give the laymen a half day, and that they will assist the district leader in arranging a program for the occasion. And further, that all the presiding elders will consult together and arrange the meeting of their district conferences so that no two of them will be held the same week, thus allowing district lay leaders and charge lay leaders to attend other conferences as well as their own.

The General Secretary of the Laymen's Movement, Dr. C. F. Reid, has been sick for several months, unable to attend to his duties. We see by the papers that he has recovered sufficiently to return to Nashville and take up his work again.

We thank God for Dr. Reid, are glad to hear of his improvement, and pray for his full recovery, and that he may be spared to us for many years.

Fraternally,

W. W. BALL, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE ORGAN.

At a meeting of the Annual Conferences, the Kentucky, Louisville and Western Virginia, during September, 1914, a Committee from each, being two preachers and two laymen, were appointed to fully consider the proposition of Dr. E. G. B. Mann and Rev. W. A. Swift, editors and owners of the Central Methodist, proposing to turn over the ownership and control of it to said conferences for the sum of nine thousand dollars, to be paid them in cash, or to be secured to them in terms equivalent to cash; and with their proposition of sale, they suggest that the conferences put it in the control of the Mission Board of the conferences or some other competent Joint Commission and proceed to put the paper systematically into all the families of the church and levy an assessment on each pastoral charge to cover the cost of furnishing the paper regularly, and let that assessment take its place with the other regular assessments of the conference. They estimate that an assessment of $1.50 for every family or single person representing a family, in the three patronizing conferences, would be sufficient to furnish the paper regularly to all, and would yield the first year a surplus to pay the cost of the purchase of the paper. After that the assessment of $1.00 in place of $1.50 would be sufficient to furnish the paper regularly and systematically, and yield a surplus for the Mission Boards or any other benevolent work to which the conferences might desire to appropriate it.

We do not believe the proposition to be practical and workable, even if the Western Virginia Conference had entered into the proposed plan, which it has failed to do. Our Bishops, our General Conference, our Annual Conferences, the membership of our churches, and this, your Committee from the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences, all recognize the fact that we must have "Conference Organs."

The bishops, at the last General Conference in their address, say:

"We have papers published to serve a single Annual Conference, or a group of annual conferences, and which are commonly called "Conference Organs." These periodicals render most valuable service, and they constitute an important interest of the church, which should receive your careful attention. None of them receive the support which it deserves, and the circulation of all of them falls below what the highest success of the church requires. The matter is commended to your consideration with the expression of hope that most effectual means may be devised to promote the advancement of this increasingly important interest. These Conference Organs ought not to be treated as personal enterprises and private concerns, and left to languish through indifference and neglect upon the part of our people."

And by the recommendation of the foregoing, the General Conference took notice, and the Committee on Publishing Interests by their report No. 1 (the same covering the matter as suggested in the Bishop's address) was adopted. By this report it was recommended:

"That in order effectually to carry out the policy, that the Book Committee be charged with the duty of dividing the whole church territory into several districts and of seeking to combine papers where there are now more than needed in any given area. And also that each Annual Conference select at its next session Auxiliary Advisory Commissions consisting of three members, whose duty it shall be to effect a change from private to Conference ownership and control wherever practicable, and to otherwise co-operate with the General Committee in carrying out the publicity of the church."

Now, since the appointment of your Committee and since either of our former meetings, the Book Committee in May last held its annual meeting in Richmond, Va., and acted upon the authority vested in them by said Report No. 1 of the Committee on Publishing Interests, and passed this resolution:

"Resolved, That in the judgment of this Committee, it is in every way desirable that the number of our church organs should be decreased so as to give to each organ published, a territory sufficient for its adequate support; and in pursuance of this idea we would earnestly commend to the consideration of the conferences, consolidation, so as to provide for one organ in each district. We recommend the division of territory into eight districts, composed as follows: First District, the states of Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. Second District, Missouri and Arkansas. Third District, Louisiana and Missisissippi. Fourth District, Tennessee and Kentucky. Fifth District, Alabama, Georgia and Florida. Sixth District, Virginia, Maryland and West Virginia. Seventh District, North Carolina and South Carolina. Eighth District, all the territory west of New Mexico, Missouri and Arkansas to the Pacific Coast."

Now, therefore, the Book Committee having commended their idea to the consideration of the Conferences, and having recommended the division of territory of the whole church, as herein set forth, and therein having made Tennessee and Kentucky District No. 4.

We do now report back to the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences, that they as Conferences, or through Committees appointed, may take action in accordance with the said Book Committees Report and recommend the purchase of the Conference Organs in the Fourth District under the Book Committees recommendation.

COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

We, your Committee on Temperance, submit the following:

1. We deplore the fact that the name of our fair state has been so closely associated with every suggestion of the liquor traffic that it has brought upon us reproach and shame and humiliated us in the eyes of the world.

2. We regret deeply that so many of our people in the two leading political parties have been deceived into supporting candidates for the nomination and the adoption of platforms opposing the submission of a prohibition amendment to the people. But we rejoice that 106 of the 120 counties of our State have voted not to license saloons in their respective territories, and we are greatly gratified that seven of our eleven Congressmen voted for the submission of the question of national prohibition to the States.

3. We favor State-wide and world-wide prohibition and pledge ourselves to persistent and perpetual opposition to the manufacture, sale or use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage. The forces which fight for righteousness may sometimes lose a battle, but they never lose a war, and in the strength and spirit of the God of the church we will wage the war against this iniquity until in Kentucky and the nation the accursed liquor traffic is outlawed and annihilated.

4. The recent campaign culminating in the primary elections has fully demonstrated the utter hopelessness of the situation without the fullest harmony and the most complete unity of action of all the Christian forces of the State. We fully appreciate the church Temperance Societies of the several denominational bodies, and that band of noble, godly women, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and all other organizations opposing the liquor traffic; but we believe that the plan of the Anti-Saloon League which is proposed and fostered by the church, and which contemplates the union of all the temperance forces, regardless of denominational or political lines, offers the most rational basis upon which to secure that union.

5. We express our high appreciation of the noble character of Dr. N. A. Palmer, our State Superintendent of the League, and the careful and cautious work of the League under his administration. Though greatly handicapped from lack of funds and often embarrassed by the folly of would-be friends, he has gone steadily forward with the work of the League until today the friends of the liquor traffic recognize and fear the Anti-Saloon League as their most formidable foe. We believe in the head and the heart of this man of God, in his quiet and unostentatious methods of work, and pledge him our prayers and hearty cooperation in every possible way.

6. We deplore and denounce the practice of the corrupt politicians, who with money and whiskey buy themselves into office and thereby defeat the will of the people and corrupt and degrade our citizenship, and we hail with delight any and all men who by precept and example condemn all such political trickery and tricksters.

7. We rejoice that our church has kept in the forefront of all reform movements and has made it unlawful for any young man coming into our Conference to use tobacco, and we therefore feel that our older preachers who persist in the use of tobacco, set a bad example for the younger men, and we would exhort them and all others, that, for consistency's sake, and for the sake of saving our boys from the baneful effects of cigarettes, they cease the pernicious practice.

Respectfully submitted,

MEMOIRS

"Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands," are rare. Too seldom do they come, too few are from heaven sent, for us not to ponder deeply why they are so rare and why we are called upon to give them up, when the chariots of God carry our Elijahs home. Dr. E. H. Pearce in his going left us looking heavenward, longing for the mantle and the spirit of his great soul to fall upon us.

"You felt his "immortality o'er-sweep all pains, all tears, all fears, and peal like the eternal thunders of the deep," that he held within himself the power of eternal life. This was deeply felt while he dwelt in the flesh, but it overpowered all other feelings as we paid the last respects to his late body in the sacred precincts of the church where for a total of eleven years he had preached the gospel of our immortality. All felt that he was there, not in the broken house of clay, which lay before us, but radiant and glorious, even as Christ met Mary Magdalene in the garden of Joseph of Arimathea before the broken sepulcher. We heard him say, "I am alive forever more." It was the triumph of a personalized gospel.

Christ lived in him around thousands of firesides and family boards. The beauty and force of his character and the brilliancy of his attainments were but the rich setting for the Saviour of whom his whole life constantly spoke. He was truly a living epistle known and read of men for the glory of God. His most effective method was that of our Lord with the woman of Sychar at Jacob's well. He excelled in reaching the thousands of men who are out of touch with the church in this beautiful bluegrass region. A mind of metaphysical subtlety and philosophical insight combined with a trenchant wit to give him a great message in the pulpit. But it was as a pastor doing personal work that he was most effective.

Since what we may become is partly determined by the streams of heredity which flow down from the ancestral hills, the genealogy of Dr. E. H. Pearce is full of interest. Gt. Gt. Grandfather (paternal)

Mark Pearce, Scotland. Exile from Scotland to France in persecution of Protestants by James II, 1688; thence to Lurgan, Ireland. Great Grand father, George Pearce, emigrated to America and settled on West bank of the Delaware, near Philadelphia, 1720. Grandfather, Samuel Pearce, born 1752; a Continental soldier, 1777-79; War 1812-14. Father, Wesley Pearce, born 1808; died 1876. A native of Evansville, Va.

Great Grandfather (maternal), Samuel Woods, emigrated from Wales to Carlisle, Pennsylvania; thence to Mason County, Ky., 1779 or 1780. A soldier in the Continental Army, also in battle of Blue Licks, Ky. Grandfather, Micah Woods, born near Maysville, Mason County, Ky., later of Brown County, Ohio, and Judge of County Court. Judge Woods was a soldier under Gen. Anthony Wayne, in the Northwest in the War of 1812, and a cousin of the late Hon. Wm. B. Woods of the U. S. Supreme Court, 1870-1885. His eldest daughter was the mother of E. H. Pearce. His ancestry were Methodist from the days of Wesley and Democratic from the days of Jefferson.

Eugene H. Pearce was born at Decatur, Ohio, September 16, 1843. He was regenerated in 1856. Married to Miss Annie E. Armstrong, of Bloomfield, Ky., in 1874. Attended Decatur (O.) Academy 1858-59; Ripley (O.) Academy, 1860-61; received B. S. National Normal University, 1865; A. M. Kentucky Wesleyan, 1867. Studied law under Ex-Chief Justice T. W. Bartley, Cincinnati, O., and Hon. R. H. Stanton, Maysville, Ky. Admitted to the Bar in 1866 at Carlisle, Ky., where he was Mayor 1867-68.

He entered the ministry in 1870. Was Assistant Superintendent of the American Bible Society for Kentucky, 1870-75. In 1873 he made a tour of Great Britain and Continental Europe, having been appointed State Commissioner to the International Exposition, Vienna, Austria. Took Theological course in Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J., 1875-76.

Dr. Pearce was pastor at Covington (Eleventh St.), Paris, Versailles, Nicholasville, Danville (three terms, covering in all eleven years). New church buildings were successfully enterprised in four of these charges. He was President Kentucky Chautauqua Assembly, 1886-89. Declined the superintendency of Missions in Mexico, 1887. Received D. D. Degree from Center College, Danville, Ky., 1891. President Danville Literary Club, 1887-1890. Declined chair in Vanderbilt University, 1892. Was Educational Secretary Kentucky Wesleyan College, 1892. On Board of Trustees of same, 1887-1900. Declined presidency of Kentucky Wesleyan College, 1893. Was pastor at Somerset 1893-95. President of Kentucky Wesleyan College, 1895-1900. Delegate to Third Ecumenical Conference of Methodism, London, England, 1901.

In 1883 Dr. Pearce with his family settled in a beautiful home of their own in Danville, Ky., and after his resignation from the presidency of Kentucky Wesleyan College in 1900, he served from this point two terms as pastor at Lancaster, one term at Danville, one term at Burgin, and was serving Lawrenceburg at the time of his death, November 28, 1914. He filled his pulpit appointments on Sunday prior to his death the following Saturday. This fact is in keeping with the economy of time which was habitual. He was always busy, a tireless worker, sacrificing himself for the Master's work.

He is survived by his consecrated wife, Mrs. Annie E. Pearce, and four children; Hon. Eugene L. Pearce, of Clearwater, Florida, Mr. Stanley Dodd Pearce of New York City, Miss Lillian A. Pearce, Danville, Ky.; Miss Allene A. Pearce, Missionary at Songdo, Korea.

"He is not dead, he doth not sleep, he hath awakened from the dream of life.

'Tis we, who lost, in stormy visions keep with phantoms an unprofitable strife.

He hath outsoared the shadow of our night, envy and calumny, and toil and pain,

And that unrest which men miscall delight, can touch him not nor torture e'er again."

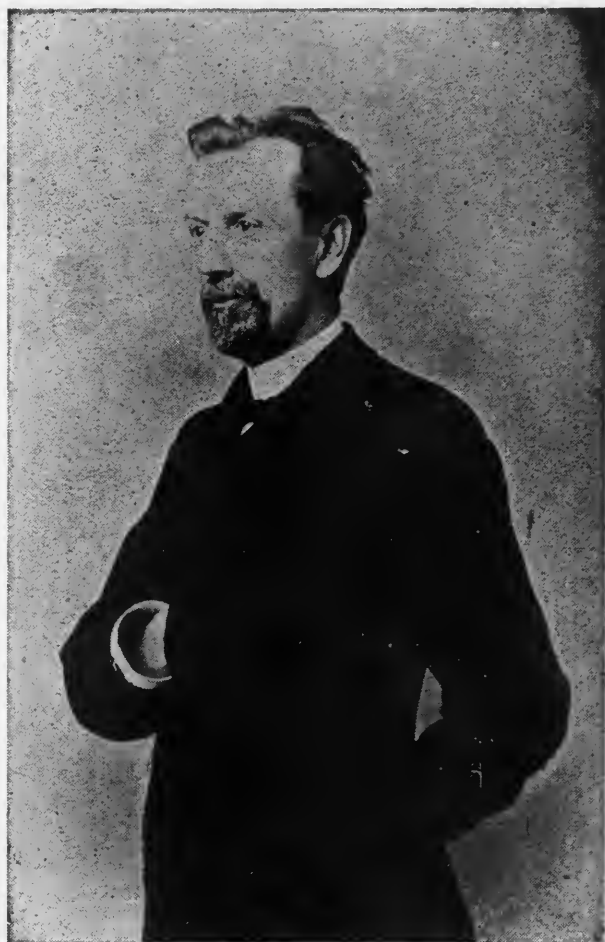

He counted life "just a stuff to try the soul's strength on." He invested in the Eternal verities. Mortality is swallowed up of life. He is clothed upon with his spiritual body, a house not made with hands, incorruptible, eternal. Coming back at length when all is ready, coming with a shout of victory. Coming back to rest where he used to toil, to be rich where he used to be poor. Coming back to peace; to reign with the Prince of Peace in the Sabbath pleasure and the beautiful calm.

E. H. PEARCE.

As a class we pause to put on record a word of testimony to the virtues and character of our beloved classmate, Dr. E. H. Pearce. Of the six who knocked at the door of the conference in 1876 for admission into the itinerant ranks he is the first to fall. Shoulder to shoulder for thirty-nine years, we stood in the thickest of the fight; but now our ranks are broken and we are left to continue the conflict without him. "He has fought a good fight, he has finished his course, he has kept the faith."

No truer man has wrought among us. He was of royal mould and princely bearing. In his veins ran the blood of one of Scotland's noted clans. He stood unabashed before kings and was at ease in the councils of the mighty. No soul was ever freer from envy, jealousy or suspicion. Pure himself he believed his brethren pure also. No friend ever suffered for help or sympathy with his knowledge. His plethoric purse was always open when want stood at his door. He was a tireless worker. With indomitable will he prosecuted every task and responded to every call of duty. He had a genius for details. System ran through all his undertakings. His pastorates were marked by advancement along all lines. He excelled as a church builder, "If you would see his monument look around" at the stately temples he built or projected. The honor of the king and the interests of the Kingdom were safe in his hands. His optimism was large. He believed in God; he believed in men, and these qualities contributed much to his success. In his pastoral work he obliterated the distinction between the lordly and the lowly, too often made and caused each class to feel that in him they had a friend. A royal host, a genial companion, a generous patron he charmed every circle in which he moved and made his numerous beneficiaries feel the warmth of a sympathetic love.

As a brother we loved him, as a friend we trusted him, as a leader we honored him, as a fellow worker we lamented his loss. Like our noble brother who fell on the firing line may it be ours, at once, to cease to labor and to live.

J. J. DICKEY,

Class of '76.

MRS. J. W. HUGHES.

Mrs. Mary Wallingford Hughes was born April 3, 1858. She was married to Rev. J. W. Hughes July 28, 1881. To this union were born eight children, four of whom and her beloved husband survive her; the other four preceded her to the glory world. She was converted in the Methodist Church at Chaplin, Ky., in December, 1882, and was sanctified about the year of 1895, in the college chapel at Wilmore, Ky. Her second year in the itinerancy was a marked epoch in her life, it being the year of her conversion.

On Sunday night, December 20, I received this message from Bro. Hughes: "Mother is gone; will expect you at Wilmore Tuesday morning."

Tuesday morning found the large auditorium of the Wilmore Methodist Church filled with old friends of Bro. and Sister Hughes. A memorial service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. M. S. Clark, at which the writer spoke at some length in memory of Sister Hughes. This was followed by other and briefer addresses.

About forty-five years ago a slender, light haired youth called on me in my father's home. That youth was J. W. Hughes. Then and there began a friendship which has continued without interruption to the present time, and which will no doubt last through eternity.

Several years later when I heard that Bro. Hughes had taken to himself a wife, I was anxious to know what kind of a choice he had made. When I met Sister Hughes I felt assured that he had drawn a prize. Then and there I found another life long friend.

Their marriage was a fusion of opposites: he was a blonde, she was a brunette; psychically, he was demonstrative, energetic, active and strong; she was delicate, gentle and retiring. In one way they were alike: each had an exalted opinion of the other. He evidently thought that he had the one woman in the world; she thought she had the one man. The beauty about it was, it lasted. As long as they lived together they never abandoned that belief. Their domestic life, I thought, was beautiful.

In relating her experience, I have heard Sister Hughes say that in her girlhood she loved worldly pleasures. However, there came a time when she was soundly converted to God. Then she broke at once and forever with the old life, and followed the new unswervingly to the end.

Bro. and Sister Hughes had a family of bright sons and daughters, to whom they extended a parental loyalty and devotion, which was pleasant to behold. The lives of this man and woman not only were connected by joys in the life of their children, but were more potently welded by the little graves they dug together. Some of their experiences were pathetic to the last degree.

Bro. Hall Pollitt was at the memorial service and spoke kindly of the deceased. He had a right to be there and lay a flower upon her casket. He alone had known her from the cradle. They had been friends and playmates in childhood. It was very gratifying to hear him speak in strong terms of approval of this woman he had always known. He recounted the pleasures and memories coming down from the days unlike all other days—the halcyon days of childhood.

Bro. W. S. Maxwell also pronounced a well deserved tribute of esteem and special friendship in memory of Sister Hughes.

Dr. H. C. Morrison spoke of traits in Sister Hughes' character in a way we heartily endorsed. He said she was an example of virtuous womanhood in dress, in deportment and in sentiment, which should be strongly emphasized in this day, when scant decency in female attire has swept over the land like a flood. He spoke of her Christian consistency. She professed the higher life in conversation and in conduct. In all her intercourse with her friends, she never trailed its banner in the dust. No indiscretion brought reproach to her Master. She was the advocate of a despised tenet, "the SECOND BLESSING, properly so called." Her defense of this doctrine and experience was calm and dignified, and always commanded respect.

Bro. Andrew Johnson, in an eloquent tribute, emphasized the fitness of bringing the remains of Sister Hughes to Wilmore, Ky. Instituting a comparison between Susanna Wesley, the mother of Methodism, and Katherine Booth, the mother of the Salvation Army, he said, when the history of the Holiness Movement is written, it will be found that Sister Hughes was the mother of Holiness colleges, as she was the wife of Rev. J. W. Hughes, the founder of Asbury College, the first Holiness college in America, and as far as is ascertained in the world. It was proper that her ashes should rest at Wilmore, where her college career commenced and where most of it was spent.

Numbers of other friends desired to speak of this beautiful life, but time would not permit. The simple but impressive service was interspersed with appropriate and touching hymns sung by the Kingswood and Asbury male quartettes, and the remains were laid to rest in the Wilmore cemetery.

MRS. R. M. LEE.

Mrs. Victoria Lee was the daughter of B. R. and Sarah Ross Hill. She was born in Mason county, Kentucky, Nov. 8, 1874, and died April 20, 1915. The youngest of eleven children, she is survived by three brothers and two sisters.

After attending the public schools of Mason County, she took a course in the High School at Mt. Olivet, Ky., and spent a few years in teaching in the public schools of Robertson County. On her birthday anniversary, Nov. 8, 1898, she was married to Rev. R. M. Lee, of the Kentucky Conference, and shared with him the joys and trials of the itinerant life until God called her home. To them were born six children, three boys and three girls, one of them a little babe, only five days old at the time of the mother's death.

Sister Lee was converted when eleven years of age, and joined the Salem M. E. Church, in Mason County, where her childhood was spent. At the time of her marriage, her husband was pastor of the Hazel Green Mission. She went with him at once into the M. E. Church, South, and entered heartily into the work of the church. For more than sixteen years she shared with him the joys and privations of the itineracy, and found great delight in the opportunities and services that came to her. Her talent for music, her sunny disposition, her faith and her prayers were a continual inspiration and help to her husband. She was not a stranger to hardship and trial. Often the meager salary received made the care of her household a difficult task, but she never complained, and often she expressed a wish that she might have entered earlier with her husband into the Master's service.

Sister Lee was a home-maker. When the cares of a growing family began to press so heavily upon her, she reluctantly gave up, to a great extent, the church work in which she was so deeply interested, and abandoned herself to training of the children whom God had entrusted to her love and care. In this blessed work she no doubt successfully laid the foundation for Christian character and Christian service in her children. She had the joy of knowing that her two oldest boys were converted a few weeks before she was called away from them. The covenant-keeping God will not forget the prayers and faith of the sainted mother, and he will care for, and bring to Himself the orphans so often committed to His keeping.

To the sorrowing husband, who has been our life-long friend, we would extend our deepest sympathy. We feel like putting our arms around the three boys, and telling them to always remember the sweet face of the angel mother, and to listen again and again to the prayers she so fervently offered that they might be kept from evil and brought safely to the heavenly home at last. May God take into His own loving care the little girls who so much need a mother's tender watchfulness and guidance and counsel. During her last moments on earth, Sister Lee talked but little, but gave expression to her faith in God and her readiness to go at His call. But her life of steady faith, and quiet, but unwavering devotion, are the best guarantees that it is well with her now. In the Father's house are many mansions. That all her loved ones may gather there at last is our confident hope and prayer.
